

List of Accommodation

There are many different options available in the area for accommodation, a few examples are listed below. If you are having any difficulty finding what you want, at the end of the list are links to a variety of websites which could be of use to you. Please make enquiries about breakfast and supper availability for the accommodation that you choose.

For people who are bringing family and friends who are not participating in the masterclass, the studio is situated on the perimeter of an area of Out Standing Beauty. There are many country walks, cycling destinations and seasonal activities which can be identified on the Shropshire tourist information website. There are many historical houses, gardens and castles in the region which are well worth a visit. English Heritage and the National Trust have many properties in the area.

Access

If you are planning your journey by car, your destination is SY7 0NT. The studio is directly opposite Broome Railway station, situated down a short gravel track (opposite Railway Terrace) after you turn left under a railway bridge. If you are accessing from the alternative direction you will turn right to Broome station before the railway bridge. There is also a large village notice board on the corner of the short gravel track to identify the right turning.

By rail there are stations at Broome (opposite the studio), Craven Arms, Ludlow and Shrewsbury. The bus service is infrequent and so is not recommended.

Local taxi firms include: Advanced booking is recommended for local private hire cars.
